

Lead –

Dull gray/white that is easily scratched with a coin.

To test use a magnet – strong magnets will NOT cling to lead pipes.

Copper –

The same color as a copper penny.

To test use a magnet – strong magnets will NOT cling to copper pipes.

Plastic –

Typically, white or black but can be different colors, comes in the form of PVC, C-900, PEX, Polyethylene, and HDPE

To test use a magnet – strong magnets will NOT cling to plastic pipes

Galvanized Steel -

A dull silver-gray color that is resistant to scratching.

To Test use a magnet – strong magnets WILL cling to the pipe.